

19. INDRA, who' art to be invoked of men, come to their offered viands, drink of (their) libations.
20. 'Drink of the (Soma) purchased by the milch cow,¹ that (Soma) which is mixed with watec, that which, INDRA, is especially tfrine.
21. IM>RA, pass by the man who offers the liba- Varga v. tion in anger, him who pours it out upon a spot disapproved of; drink this presented Soma?
22. INDRA, who hast beheld oitr praises, proceed in three directions from a distance,* pass beyond^vy
the five orders of beings.
23. As the sun disperses his rays, do thou perse (wealth upon me): may my praises rapidly draw thee, as waters (reach) the low ground, 24. Adhwaryu, quickly pour forth the Soma to the hero INDRA with the goodly jaws; bring the Soma
for his drinking;
25. Who clove the cloud for (the issue of) the rain, who sent down the waters, who placed the onature (milk) in the cattle.
26. The brilliant t INDRA slew VRITRA, ATTRNA-viBEA, AHISUVA; he smote ARBTJBA with frost.
27. Sing aloud (priests) to the fierce, victorious

¹ Swadhainavdndm, dhenvd Jcritdn somdn: as by the text, dhemd IcrindU.

² Sama Veda, I. 223 [I. 8. 1. 4.1, but mth some variations].

* -i.e. Come to us from in front, from beMnd, and from the
side,
f Eor richlshama, see Vol. III. p. 467, note.